Re: Compliance with the Board's Order to Cease and Desist

Dear Sirs:

Since the appellate court lifted the last temporary stay on November 7, 2013, Edwin and Eileen Hostetler (the "Hostetlers") have been diligently searching for multiple options to comply with your Order to Cease and Desist. As discussed numerous times, finding a place for the birds at the flip of a switch is not a simple task. However, the Hostetlers did find places for some of the birds over the last few weeks and were finally able to find a place for the majority of the birds that were remaining in the chicken barn. The final remaining birds were trucked out of the chicken barn by 4:00 a.m. this morning. As such, the Hostetlers have fully complied with your Order to Cease and Desist, and there is no reason for any enforcement action or other substitute process.

Please contact my office in writing if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Joshua Tolin
